

1 DELEGATE CLAGETT: Mr. Chairman, I get the 2 feeling that we are being whittled on or whittled at by the 3 various proposals that are coming before us now, and I
4 cannot but sort of amusedly observe that with my name
5 up at the top of the second column, that it is easily to be 6 seen when I have to vote against a good friend like Delegate
7 Adkins or one whom I admire as much as I do Delegate Dorsey,
8 and the proposer of the motion or amendment, Delegate Kirk-
9 land. It only prolongs the agony. However, there was 10 one resolution that I made before I came down here. That 11 was to vote my conscience, and to disregard friendships
12 that are being made and friendships that will grow warmer
13 as we go through the various sessions of this chamber.

14 I still feel that where we have a committee that 15 has battled as hard as this committee obviously has 16 and under the leadership of a chairman as able as he is,
17 he is just not going to be whittled. We have got 18 to stand with him. I would like somehow to get to the 19 question of how we can cast a vote for the 105-35 and go 20 home.

21 THE CHAIRMAN: Does any other delegate desire